PART I – PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the National Land Commission Act, 2012.

2. Interpretation

(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Board” deleted by Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 36;

“chairperson” means the chairperson of the Commission appointed in accordance with Article 250(2) of the Constitution and section 8 of this Act;

“Cabinet Secretary” means the Cabinet Secretary for the time being responsible for matters relating to land;

“Commission” means the National Land Commission established by Article 67 of the Constitution;

“community” means a clearly defined group of users of land identified on the basis of ethnicity, culture or similar community of interest as provided under Article 63(1) of the Constitution, which holds a set of clearly defined rights and obligations over land and land-based resources;

“irregularly” means in a manner that does not conform to standards, procedures or the criteria prescribed under this Act or any other written law;

“Registrar” means the Chief Land Registrar, Deputy Chief Land Registrar, County Land Registrars and Land Registrars appointed under the Land Registration Act, 2012;

“secretary” means the secretary to the Commission appointed by the Commission under Article 250(12) of the Constitution, in accordance with the procedure set out in section 20 of this Act.

(2) Despite subsection (1), until after the first general elections under the Constitution, references in this Act to the expression “Cabinet Secretary” shall be construed to mean “Minister”.

[Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 36.]

3. Object and purpose of the Act

The object and purpose of this Act is to provide—

(a) for the management and administration of land in accordance with the principles of land policy set out in Article 60 of the Constitution and the national land policy;

(b) for the operations, powers, responsibilities and additional functions of the Commission pursuant to Article 67(3) of the Constitution;

(c) a legal framework for the identification and appointment of the chairperson, members and the secretary of the Commission pursuant to Article 250(2) and (12)(a) of the Constitution; and

(d) for a linkage between the Commission, county governments and other institutions dealing with land and land related resources.

4. Offices of the Commission

(1) The Headquarters of the Commission shall be in Nairobi.

(2) The Commission shall ensure access to its services in all parts of the Republic in accordance with Article 6(3) of the Constitution.

PART II – FUNCTIONS AND POWERS

5. Functions of the Commission

(1) Pursuant to Article 67(2) of the Constitution, the functions of the Commission shall be—

(a) to manage public land on behalf of the national and county governments;

(b) to recommend a national land policy to the national government;

(c) to advise the national government on a comprehensive programme for the registration of title in land throughout Kenya;

(d) to conduct research related to land and the use of natural resources, and make recommendations to appropriate authorities;

(e) to initiate investigations, on its own initiative or on a complaint, into present or historical land injustices, and recommend appropriate redress;

12. Filling of vacancy

(1) Where a vacancy occurs in the membership of the Commission, the President shall appoint a replacement in accordance with the procedure set out in the First Schedule.

(2) A member appointed under subsection (1), shall serve the Commission for a single term of six years.

13. Terms and conditions of service

A member of the Commission shall be paid such remuneration or allowances as the Salaries and Remuneration Commission shall determine.

14. Review of grants and dispositions

(1) Subject to Article 68(c)(v) of the Constitution, the Commission shall, within five years of the commencement of this Act, on its own motion or upon a complaint by the national or a county government, a community or an individual, review all grants or dispositions of public land to establish their propriety or legality.

(2) Subject to Articles 40, 47 and 60 of the Constitution, the Commission shall make rules for the better carrying out of its functions under subsection (1).

(3) In the exercise of the powers under subsection (1), the Commission shall give every person who appears to the Commission to have an interest in the grant or disposition concerned, a notice of such review and an opportunity to appear before it and to inspect any relevant documents.

(4) After hearing the parties in accordance with subsection (3), the Commission shall make a determination.

(5) Where the Commission finds that the title was acquired in an unlawful manner, the Commission shall, direct the Registrar to revoke the title.

(6) Where the Commission finds that the title was irregularly acquired, the Commission shall take appropriate steps to correct the irregularity and may also make consequential orders.

(7) No revocation of title shall be effected against a bona fide purchaser for value without notice of a defect in the title.

(8) In the exercise of its power under this section, the Commission shall be guided by the principles set out under Article 47 of the Constitution.

(9) The Commission may, where it considers it necessary, petition Parliament to extend the period for undertaking the review specified in subsection (1).

15. Historical land injustices

(1) Pursuant to Article 67 (3) of the Constitution, the Commission shall receive, admit and investigate all historical land injustice complaints and recommend appropriate redress.
(2) For the purposes of this section, a historical land injustice means a grievance which—
(a) was occasioned by a violation of right in land on the basis of any law, policy, declaration, administrative practice, treaty or agreement;
(b) resulted in displacement from their habitual place of residence;
(c) occurred between 15th June 1895 when Kenya became a protectorate under the British East African Protectorate and 27th August, 2010 when the Constitution of Kenya was promulgated;
(d) has not been sufficiently resolved and subsists up to the period specified under paragraph (c); and
(e) meets the criteria set out under subsection 3 of this section.

(3) A historical land claim may only be admitted, registered and processed by the Commission if it meets the following criteria—
(a) it is verifiable that the act complained of resulted in displacement of the claimant or other form of historical land injustice;
(b) the claim has not or is not capable of being addressed through the ordinary court system on the basis that—
   (i) the claim contradicts a law that was in force at the time when the injustice began; or
   (ii) the claim is debarred under section 7 of the Limitation of Actions Act, (Cap. 22) or any other law;
(c) the claimant was either a proprietor or occupant of the land upon which the claim is based;
(d) no action or omission on the part of the claimant amounts to surrender or renouncement of the right to the land in question; and
(e) it is brought within five years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(4) A claim alleging historical land injustice shall be permissible if it was occasioned by—
(a) colonial occupation;
(b) independence struggle;
(c) pre-independence treaty or agreement between a community and the government;
(d) development-induced displacement for which no adequate compensation or other form of remedy was provided, including conversion of non-public land into public land;
(e) inequitable land adjudication process or resettlement scheme;
(f) politically motivated or conflict based eviction;
(g) corruption or other form of illegality;
(h) natural disaster; or
(i) other cause approved by the Commission.

(5) When conducting investigations under subsection (1) into historical land injustices the Commission may—
(a) request from any person including any government department such particulars, documents and information regarding any investigation, as may be necessary; or
(b) by notice in writing, addressed and delivered by a staff of the Commission to any person, direct such person, in relation to any investigation, to appear before the Commission at such time and place as may be specified in the notice, and to produce such documents or objects in the possession, custody or under the control of such person and which are relevant to that investigation.

(6) Where a complainant is unable to provide all the information necessary for the adequate submission or investigation of a complaint, the Commission shall take reasonable steps to have this information made available.

(7) If at any stage during the course of an investigation, the Commission is of the opinion that the resources of the Commission may be more effectively utilized if all claims within a given area or township were to be investigated at the same time, the Commission shall cause to be published in the Gazette or in such other manner as the Commission may deem appropriate, a notice advising potential complainants of the decision and inviting them to lodge claims within a period specified in such notice.

(8) A claim in respect of a matter contemplated in subsection (7) shall not be lodged after the expiry of the period specified in the said notice.

(9) The Commission, after investigating any case of historical land injustice referred to it, shall recommend any of the following remedies—
(a) restitution;
(b) compensation, if it is impossible to restore the land;
(c) resettlement on an alternative land;
(d) rehabilitation through provision of social infrastructure;
(e) affirmative action programmes for marginalized groups and communities;
(f) creation of wayleaves and easements;
(g) order for revocation and reallocation of the land;
(h) order for revocation of an official declaration in respect of any public land and reallocation;
(i) sale and sharing of the proceeds;
(j) refund to bona fide third party purchasers after valuation; or
(k) declaratory and preservation orders including injunctions.

(10) Upon determination of a historical land injustice claim by the Commission, any authority mandated to act under the redress recommended shall be required to do so within three years.

(11) The provisions of this section shall stand repealed within ten years.

15. Historical land injustices

(1) Pursuant to Article 67 (3) of the Constitution, the Commission shall receive, admit and investigate all historical land injustice complaints and recommend appropriate redress.
(2) For the purposes of this section, a historical land injustice means a grievance which—
   (a) was occasioned by a violation of right in land on the basis of any law, policy, declaration, administrative practice, treaty or agreement;
   (b) resulted in displacement from their habitual place of residence;
   (c) occurred between 15th June 1895 when Kenya became a protectorate under the British East African Protectorate and 27th August, 2010 when the Constitution of Kenya was promulgated;
   (d) has not been sufficiently resolved and subsists up to the period specified under paragraph (c); and
   (e) meets the criteria set out under subsection 3 of this section.

(3) A historical land claim may only be admitted, registered and processed by the Commission if it meets the following criteria—
   (a) it is verifiable that the act complained of resulted in displacement of the claimant or other form of historical land injustice;
   (b) the claim has not or is not capable of being addressed through the ordinary court system on the basis that—
      (i) the claim contradicts a law that was in force at the time when the injustice began; or
      (ii) the claim is debarred under section 7 of the Limitation of Actions Act, (Cap. 22) or any other law;
   (c) the claimant was either a proprietor or occupant of the land upon which the claim is based;
   (d) no action or omission on the part of the claimant amounts to surrender or renouncement of the right to the land in question; and
   (e) it is brought within five years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(4) A claim alleging historical land injustice shall be permissible if it was occasioned by—
   (a) colonial occupation;
   (b) independence struggle;
   (c) pre-independence treaty or agreement between a community and the government;
   (d) development-induced displacement for which no adequate compensation or other form of remedy was provided, including conversion of non-public land into public land;
   (e) inequitable land adjudication process or resettlement scheme;
   (f) politically motivated or conflict based eviction;
   (g) corruption or other form of illegality;
   (h) natural disaster; or
   (i) other cause approved by the Commission.

(5) When conducting investigations under subsection (1) into historical land injustices the Commission may—
(a) request from any person including any government department such particulars, documents and information regarding any investigation, as may be necessary; or

(b) by notice in writing, addressed and delivered by a staff of the Commission to any person, direct such person, in relation to any investigation, to appear before the Commission at such time and place as may be specified in the notice, and to produce such documents or objects in the possession, custody or under the control of such person and which are relevant to that investigation.

(6) Where a complainant is unable to provide all the information necessary for the adequate submission or investigation of a complaint, the Commission shall take reasonable steps to have this information made available.

(7) If at any stage during the course of an investigation, the Commission is of the opinion that the resources of the Commission may be more effectively utilized if all claims within a given area or township were to be investigated at the same time, the Commission shall cause to be published in the Gazette or in such other manner as the Commission may deem appropriate, a notice advising potential complainants of the decision and inviting them to lodge claims within a period specified in such notice.

(8) A claim in respect of a matter contemplated in subsection (7) shall not be lodged after the expiry of the period specified in the said notice.

(9) The Commission, after investigating any case of historical land injustice referred to it, shall recommend any of the following remedies—

(a) restitution;
(b) compensation, if it is impossible to restore the land;
(c) resettlement on an alternative land;
(d) rehabilitation through provision of social infrastructure;
(e) affirmative action programmes for marginalized groups and communities;
(f) creation of wayleaves and easements;
(g) order for revocation and reallocation of the land;
(h) order for revocation of an official declaration in respect of any public land and reallocation;
(i) sale and sharing of the proceeds;
(j) refund to bona fide third party purchasers after valuation; or
(k) declaratory and preservation orders including injunctions.

(10) Upon determination of a historical land injustice claim by the Commission, any authority mandated to act under the redress recommended shall be required to do so within three years.

(11) The provisions of this section shall stand repealed within ten years.

[Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 38.]

16. Establishment of committees and county offices

(3) The annual accounts of the Commission shall be prepared, audited and reported upon in accordance with the provisions of Articles 226 and 229 of the Constitution and the Public Audit Act, 2003 (No. 12 of 2003).

PART V – TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

30. Savings

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act—

(a) any orders or notices relating to public land administration made or issued by the Ministry of Lands before the commencement of the Act shall be deemed to have been made or issued under this Act; and

(b) any function or transaction, civil proceedings or any other legal or other process in respect of any matter carried out in relation to the administration of public land administration, by or on behalf of the Ministry of Lands before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been carried out under this Act.

31. Transfer of staff

(1) Subject to subsection (3), a person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, was serving on contract in the Ministry of Lands in any of the departments whose services have been transferred to the Commission shall, at the commencement of this Act, be appointed or employed as a member of staff of the Commission for the unexpired period, if any, of the term.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) and Article 252(1)(c) of the Constitution, every person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, was an employee of the Government in the Ministry of Lands in any of the departments whose functions have been transferred to the Commission shall, upon the commencement of this Act, be employed or appointed as a member of staff of the Commission.

(3) Before appointing or employing a person to whom subsections (1) or (2) apply, the Commission shall—

(a) require such person to make an application for employment or appointment to the Commission; and

(b) using the criteria determined by the Commission, vet such a person to ensure that he or she is fit and proper to serve in the position applied for as a member of staff of the Commission.

(4) An applicant who fails to meet the vetting criteria under subsection (3), shall not be employed or appointed by the Commission.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, and for as long as the Commission or the county government shall not have appointed staff to perform the functions transferred under this section, the staff of the Ministry of Lands shall continue to perform those functions and their acts shall be deemed to be those of the Commission or county government.

32. Transfer of assets

(1) All property, assets, rights, liabilities, obligations, agreements and other arrangements existing at the commencement of this Act and vested in, acquired, incurred or entered into by or on behalf of the Ministry of Lands with respect to the departments whose functions have been transferred to the Commission, shall upon the commencement of this Act, be deemed to have vested in or to have been acquired, incurred or entered into by or on behalf of the Commission to the same extent as they were enforceable by or against the such departments before the commencement of this Act.

(2) Where the transfer of any property transferred to or vested in the Commission under subsection (1) is required by any written law to be registered, the Commission shall, within three months from the commencement of this Act or within such other period as may be prescribed in the written law, apply to the appropriate registering authority for the registration of the transfer and thereupon the registering authority shall, at no cost to the Commission or any person by way of registration fees, stamp duty or other taxes—

(a) make such entries in the appropriate register as shall be necessary to give effect to the transfer;

(b) where appropriate, issue to the Commission a certificate of title or other statutory evidence of ownership of the property or make such amendments on such certificates or in the appropriate register as may be necessary; and

(c) make any necessary endorsements on such deeds or other documents as may be presented to such registering authority relating to the title, right or obligation concerned.

PART VI – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

33. Annual report

(1) The report of the Commission under Article 254 of the Constitution shall, in respect of the financial year to which it relates, contain—

(a) the financial statements of the Commission;

(b) a description of the activities of the Commission;

(c) information relating to the progress made in the registration of title in land;

(d) recommendations made by the Commission to the county or national governments or to any state agency or organ and the action taken on such recommendations;

(e) any impediments to the work of the Commission; and

(f) such other information as the Commission considers appropriate in relation to the functions of the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall cause the annual report and any information as may be required under Article 254(3) of the Constitution to be published and publicized in such manner as the Commission may determine.

34. Code of conduct

The Commission shall within six months develop a code of conduct for its members and staff.

35. Offences

(1) A person shall not—

(a) without justification or lawful excuse, obstruct or hinder, assault or threaten a member or a member of staff of the Commission acting under this Act;
(b) submit false or misleading information to the Commission; or
(c) misrepresent to or knowingly mislead a member or a member of staff of the Commission acting under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding three million shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

36. Regulations

The Commission may make regulations generally for the better carrying into effect of any provisions of this Act and such regulations shall be tabled before Parliament for approval.

FIRST SCHEDULE

[Sections 7(2), 12(1), Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 40.]

PROCEDURE FOR APPOINTMENT OF CHAIRPERSON AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION

(1) The President shall, within fourteen days after the commencement of this Act and whenever a vacancy arises, constitute a selection panel comprising—
(a) a nominee of the Office of the President;
(b) deleted by Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 40 (a)(ii);
(c) a representative of the Cabinet Secretary;
(d) two persons, of opposite gender, nominated by the Non-Governmental Organisations Council, who have demonstrated competence and capacity in matters related to natural resources;
(e) one person who is a citizen of Kenya, nominated by the Kenya Private Sector Alliance from their member organizations who has demonstrated competence and capacity in the land sector.
(f) a nominee of the Association of Professional Societies in East Africa; and
(g) a nominee of the National Gender and Equality Commission.

(2) The Public Service Commission shall—
(a) convene the first meeting of the selection panel, at which the members of the selection panel shall elect a chairperson from among their number; and
(b) provide the selection panel with such facilities and other support as it may require for the discharge of its functions under this Act.

(3) The selection panel shall, within seven days of convening, by advertisement in at least two daily newspapers of nationwide circulation, invite applications from persons who qualify for nomination and appointment for the position of the chairperson and members referred to under section 8.

(4) The selection panel shall within twenty-one days after the expiry of the deadline for receipt of applications under paragraph (3)—
(a) consider the applications received under paragraph (3) to determine their compliance with the provisions of the Constitution and this Act;
(b) short list the applicants;
(c) publish the names of the shortlisted applicants and the qualified applicants in at least two daily newspapers of nationwide circulation;

(d) conduct interviews of the shortlisted persons in public;

(e) shortlist two qualified applicants for the position of chairperson;

(f) shortlist sixteen qualified applicants for the position of the members; and

(g) forward the names of the qualified persons to the President.

(5) The President shall, within fourteen days of receipt of the names of successful applicants forwarded under paragraph (4)(g), nominate the chairperson and members of the Commission and forward the names of the persons so selected to the National Assembly for approval.

(6) The National Assembly shall, within twenty-one days of the day, it next sits after receipt of the names of the applicants under paragraph (5), vet and consider all the applicants, and may approve or reject any or all of them.

(7) Where the National Assembly approves of the nominees, the Speaker of the National Assembly shall within seven days forward the names of the approved nominees to the President for appointment.

(8) The President shall, within seven days of receipt of the approved nominees from the National Assembly, by notice in the Gazette, appoint the chairperson and members of the Commission approved by the National Assembly.

(8A) If the President does not appoint the chairperson or members of the Commission as prescribed under paragraph (8), the approved nominees shall be taken to have been appointed upon the lapse of twenty one days.

(9) Where the National Assembly rejects any nomination, the Speaker shall within three days communicate its decision to the President and request the President to submit fresh nominations.

(10) Where a nominee is rejected by the National Assembly under paragraph (9), the President shall within seven days, submit to the National Assembly a fresh nomination from amongst the persons shortlisted and forwarded by the selection panel under paragraph (4).

(11) If the National Assembly rejects any or all of the subsequent nominees submitted by the President for approval under paragraph (10), the provisions of paragraphs (1) to (5) shall apply.

(12) In short listing, nominating or appointing persons as chairperson and members of the Commission, the selection panel, the National Assembly and the President shall ensure that not more than two-thirds of the members are of the same gender.

(13) The selection panel may, subject to this section, determine its own procedure.

(14) Deleted by Act No. 28 of 2016, s. 40(d).

(15) The selection panel shall stand dissolved upon the appointment of the chairperson and members of the Commission under paragraph (8).

(16) Where the provisions of paragraph (10) apply, the selection panel shall continue to exist but shall stand dissolved upon the requisite appointments being made under paragraph (11).
(17) Despite the foregoing provisions, the President may, by notice in the Gazette, extend the period specified in respect of any matter under this section by a period not exceeding twenty-one days.
