(5) The person responsible for procurement shall, upon receipt of the evaluation report prepared under subsection (4), submit such report to the accounting officer for approval as may be prescribed in regulations

(6) The evaluation shall be carried out within a maximum period of thirty days.

(7) The evaluation report shall be signed by each member of evaluation committee.

81. Clarifications

(1) A procuring entity may, in writing request a clarification of a tender from tenderer to assist in the evaluation and comparison of tenders.

(2) A clarification shall not change the terms of the tender.

82. No correction of errors

The tender sum as submitted and read out during the tender opening shall be absolute and final and shall not be the subject of correction, adjustment or amendment in any way by any person or entity.

83. Post-qualification

(1) An evaluation committee may, after tender evaluation, but prior to the award of the tender, conduct due diligence and present the report in writing to confirm and verify the qualifications of the tenderer who submitted the lowest evaluated responsive tender to be awarded the contract in accordance with this Act.

(2) The conduct of due diligence under subsection (1) may include obtaining confidential references from persons with whom the tenderer has had prior engagement.

(3) To acknowledge that the report is a true reflection of the proceedings held, each member who was part of the due diligence by the evaluation committee shall—

- (a) initial each page of the report; and
- (b) append his or her signature as well as their full name and designation.

84. Professional opinion

(1) The head of procurement function of a procuring entity shall, alongside the report to the evaluation committee as secretariat comments, review the tender evaluation report and provide a signed professional opinion to the accounting officer on the procurement or asset disposal proceedings.

(2) The professional opinion under sub-section (1) may provide guidance on the procurement proceeding in the event of dissenting opinions between tender evaluation and award recommendations.

(3) In making a decision to award a tender, the accounting officer shall take into account the views of the head of procurement in the signed professional opinion referred to in subsection (1).

85. Recommendation for contract awards

Subject to prescribed thresholds all tenders shall be evaluated by the evaluation committee of the procuring entity for the purpose of making recommendations to the accounting officer through the head of procurement to inform the decision of the award of contract to the successful tenderers.

86. Successful tender

(1) The successful tender shall be the one who meets any one of the following as specified in the tender document—

- (a) the tender with the lowest evaluated price;
- (b) the responsive proposal with the highest score determined by the procuring entity by combining, for each proposal, in accordance with the procedures and criteria set out in the request for proposals, the scores assigned to the technical and financial proposals where Request for Proposals method is used;
- (c) the tender with the lowest evaluated total cost of ownership; or
- (d) the tender with the highest technical score, where a tender is to be evaluated based on procedures regulated by an Act of Parliament which provides guidelines for arriving at applicable professional charges.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, citizen contractors, or those entities in which Kenyan citizens own at least fifty-one per cent shares, shall be entitled to twenty percent of their total score in the evaluation, provided the entities or contractors have attained the minimum technical score.

87. Notification of intention to enter into a contract

(1) Before the expiry of the period during which tenders must remain valid, the accounting officer of the procuring entity shall notify in writing the person submitting the successful tender that his tender has been accepted.

(2) The successful bidder shall signify in writing the acceptance of the award within the time frame specified in the notification of award.

(3) When a person submitting the successful tender is notified under subsection (1), the accounting officer of the procuring entity shall also notify in writing all other persons submitting tenders that their tenders were not successful, disclosing the successful tenderer as appropriate and reasons thereof.

(4) For greater certainty, a notification under subsection (1) does not form a contract nor reduce the validity period for a tender or tender security.

88. Extension of tender validity period

(1) Before the expiry of the period during which tenders shall remain valid the accounting officer of a procuring entity may extend that period.

(2) The accounting officer of a procuring entity shall give in writing notice of an extension under subsection (1) to each person who submitted a tender.

(3) An extension under subsection (1) shall be restricted to not more than thirty days and may only be done once.

(4) For greater certainty, tender security shall be forfeited if a tender is withdrawn after a bidder has accepted the extension of bidding period under subsection (1).

89. International tendering and competition

If there will not be effective competition for a procurement unless foreign tenderers participate, the following shall apply—

- (a) the invitation to tender and the tender documents shall be in English;
- (b) if the procuring entity is required to advertise the invitation to tender under sections 96(2) and 118(2), the procuring entity shall also advertise the invitation to tender in Kenya's dedicated tenders portal or one or more English-language newspapers or other publications that, together, have sufficient circulation outside Kenya to allow effective competition for the procurement;
- (c) the period of time between the advertisement under paragraph (b) and the deadline for submitting tenders shall be not less than the minimum period of time prescribed for the purpose of this paragraph;
- (d) the technical requirements shall, to the extent compatible with requirements under Kenyan law, be based on international standards or standards widely used in international trade;
- (e) a tenderer submitting a tender may, in quoting prices or providing security, use a currency that is widely used in international trade and that the tender documents specifically allow to be used; and
- (f) where local or citizen contractors participate they shall be entitled to preferences and reservations as set out in section 155.
- (g) any other conditions as may be prescribed.

[Corr. No. 60/2016, Corr. No. 73/2016.]

PART VIII — CLASSIFIED PROCUREMENT METHODS AND PROCEDURES

90. Classified procurements and disposals

(1) For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Act shall also apply to all state organs and public entities including the national security organs as established under the Constitution and any other legislation.

(2) National security organs and other procuring entities that deal with procurements of classified nature shall manage their procurements and disposals on the basis of a dual list maintained by the respective procuring entity as prescribed.

(3) Procuring entities other than national security organs referred to under subsection (1), that procure classified items shall request the Cabinet Secretary for approval of the classified list of items annually.

(4) The dual list shall distinguish items subject to open and to classified procurement and disposal proceedings respectively.

(5) Procuring entities that deal with classified items shall agree annually with the Cabinet Secretary on the category of classified items to be included in the classified list of procurements or disposals to be applied.

(6) The Cabinet Secretary shall submit the list of classified items to Cabinet for approval.

(7) Any person carrying his or her duties or responsibilities under this section shall maintain confidentiality and shall not disclose any information that may otherwise compromise national security.

(8) A person who in order to avoid open tendering, procures items that ought to be subjected to open tendering as though they were included in the list of classified items commits an offence.

PART IX — METHODS OF PROCUREMENT OF GOODS, WORKS AND SERVICES

91. Choice of procurement procedure

(1) Open tendering shall be the preferred procurement method for procurement of goods, works and services.

(2) The procuring entity may use an alternative procurement procedure only if that procedure is allowed and satisfies the conditions under this Act for use of that method.

(3) Despite sub-sections (1) and (2) open tendering shall be adopted for procurement of goods, works and services for the threshold prescribed in the respective national and county Regulations.

92. Methods of procurement

Subject to this Act and prescribed provisions, an accounting officer of a procuring entity shall procure goods, works or services by a method which may include any of the following—

- (a) open tender;
- (b) two-stage tendering;
- (c) design competition;
- (d) restricted tendering;
- (e) direct procurement;
- (f) request for quotations;
- (g) electronic reverse auction;
- (h) low value procurement;
- (i) force account;
- (j) competitive negotiations;
- (k) request for proposals;
- (l) framework agreements; and
- (m) any other procurement method and procedure as prescribed in regulations and described in the tender documents.

93. Pre-qualification

(1) Subject to provisions of subsection (2), an accounting officer of a procuring entity where applicable, may conduct a pre-qualification procedure as a basic procedure prior to adopting an alternative procurement method other than open tender for the purpose of identifying the best few qualified firms for the subject procurement.

(2) Pre-qualification shall be for complex and specialized goods, works and services.

(3) In conducting a pre-qualification procedure an accounting officer of a procuring entity shall publish an invitation notice to candidates to submit applications to be pre-qualified.

(4) The invitation referred to in paragraph (2) shall include—

- (a) the name, address and contact details of the procuring entity;
- (b) outline of the procurement requirement, including the nature and quantity of goods, works or services and the location and timetable for delivery or performance of the contract;
- (c) statement of the key requirements and criteria to pre-qualify;
- (d) instructions on obtaining the pre-qualification documents, including any price payable and the language of the documents; and
- (e) instructions on the location and deadline for submission of applications to pre-qualify;
- (f) applicable preferences and reservations or any conditions arising from the related policy;
- (g) declaration that it is open to bidders who meet the eligibility criteria; and
- (h) requirement that only bidders with capacity to perform can apply.

94. Pre-qualification documents

(1) An accounting officer of a procuring entity shall promptly issue pre-qualification documents to all candidates who request them and shall maintain a record of all candidates to whom documents are issued.

(2) The pre-qualification document shall contain all the information specified in section 93 and any other information necessary for the potential candidates to prepare and submit applications to be pre-qualified.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (2), such information shall include—

- (a) the name, address and contact details of the procuring entity;
- (b) details of the procurement requirements, including the nature and quantity of goods, works or services and the location and timetable for delivery or performance of the contract;
- (c) instructions on the preparation of applications to pre-qualify, including any standard forms to be submitted and the documentary evidence and information required from candidates;
- (d) instructions on the sealing, labelling and submission of applications to pre-qualify, including the location and deadline for submission; and
- (e) information on how applications will be evaluated.

(4) The accounting officer of a procuring entity shall allow the candidates at least fourteen days to prepare and submit their applications to be pre-qualified.

(5) The accounting officer of a procuring entity shall promptly respond to all requests for any clarification relating to the pre-qualification document where such requests are received before the deadline for submission.

95. Approval of pre-qualified candidates

(1) The evaluation committee shall, in writing, record the results of its evaluation of applications for pre-qualification using the evaluation criteria in the pre-qualification documents and shall state which candidates were found to be qualified and the reasons why any candidates were not qualified.

(2) The record of results prepared under subsection (1) shall be submitted with recommendations of the evaluation committee and the professional opinion of the head of procurement function to the accounting officer for approval.

(3) A procuring entity shall invite tenders from only the approved persons who have been pre-qualified.

(4) A procuring entity shall notify every candidate who submitted an application for pre-qualification but did not qualify.

Details of Procurement MethodsA – Open Tender96. Advertisement

(1) The accounting officer of a procuring entity shall take such steps as are reasonable to bring the invitation to tender to the attention of those who may wish to submit tenders.

(2) Despite the provisions of subsection (1), if the estimated value of the goods, works or services being procured is equal to, or more than the prescribed threshold for county, national and international advertising, the procuring entity shall advertise in the dedicated Government tenders' portals or in its own website, or a notice in at least two daily newspapers of nationwide circulation.

(3) In addition to subsection (2) a procuring entity shall—

- (a) use Kenya's dedicated tenders portal or any other electronic advertisements as prescribed; and
- (b) post advertisements at any conspicuous place reserved for this purpose in the premises of the procuring entity.

(4) In regard to county-specific procurements pursuant to section 33, the procuring entity shall advertise the notice inviting expressions of interest in the dedicated Government tenders portal; in its own website, or in at least one daily newspaper of county-wide circulation.

(5) Where the estimated value of the goods, works or services being procured is below the prescribed threshold for national advertising, the procuring entity shall advertise using the options available in subsection (3)(a) and (b).

97. Time for preparing tenders

(1) The time allowed for the preparation of tenders shall not be less than the minimum period of time prescribed for the purpose of this subsection.

(2) For the purpose of this section, the time allowed for the preparation of tenders shall be exclusive of the day of the tender notice.

98. Provision of tender documents

(1) Upon advertisement, the accounting officer of a procuring entity shall immediately provide copies of the tender documents and in accordance with the invitation to tender and the accounting officer shall upload the tender document on the website.

(2) The accounting officer of a procuring entity may charge such fees as may be prescribed for copies of the tender documents.

B— Two-Stage Tendering

99. Two-Stage Tendering

(1) A procuring entity may engage in procurement by means of two-stage tendering when, due to complexity and inadequate knowledge on its part or advancements in technology, it is not feasible for the procuring entity to formulate detailed specifications for the goods or works or non-consultancy services in order to obtain the most satisfactory solution to its procurement needs.

(2) The provisions of this section shall apply to two-stage tendering proceedings except to the extent those provisions are excluded from in this section and the tendering document shall call upon tenderers to submit, in the first stage of the two-stage tendering proceedings, initial tenders containing their proposals without a tender price.

(3) In the second stage, the procuring entity shall invite tenderers whose tenders were retained to submit final tenders with prices with respect to a single set of specifications and in formulating those specifications, the procuring entity may modify any aspect, originally set forth in the tendering document.

(4) Any such modification or addition shall be communicated to tenderers in the invitation to submit final tenders and a tenderer not wishing to submit a final tender may withdraw from the tendering proceedings without forfeiting any tender security that they may have been required to provide.

(5) The final tenders shall be evaluated and compared in order to ascertain the successful tenderer.

(6) The specifications developed under subsection (3) shall meet the requirements specified in this Act.

(7) When developing the specifications, the procuring entity may engage experts.

C— Design Competition

100. Condition for use of Design Competitions

An accounting officer of a procuring entity may use a design competition procedure for the purpose of determining the best architectural, physical planning and any other design scheme, engineering, graphic or any other design scheme for its use.

101. Procedure for design competition

(1) In design competitions, a procuring entity shall—

- (a) invite design proposals through a public advertisement;
- (b) ensure the preparation of an invitation sets out the following—
 - (i) the name and address of the procuring entity;
 - (ii) the tender number assigned to the procurement proceedings by the procuring entity;
 - (iii) description of technical and functional needs;
 - (iv) an explanation of where and when tenders shall be submitted and where and when the tenders will be opened;

- (v) a statement that those submitting tenders or their representatives may attend the opening of the design proposals;
- (vi) a statement that a copyright or other intellectual property of the top three shall vest in the State.

(2) The evaluation of design proposals shall be undertaken by an evaluation committee established under this Act.

(3) The design process shall be as prescribed in the Regulations.

(4) Prior to publishing an invitation notice, an accounting officer of a procuring entity shall prepare tender documents and appoint as part of ad hoc evaluation committee instituted pursuant to this Act at least one independent lay assessor, and technical assessors recommended by the professional regulatory body governing the design competition.

(5) The best three assessed design schemes shall receive as a prize an honorarium as provided for in the internal policies of the procuring entity subject to the guidelines set out in the applicable county or national level or the Regulations to this Act.

(6) In participating in design competitions, all bidders shall undertake to transfer all copyrights, intellectual property rights and patents relating to their designs to the procuring entity.

(7) Upon completion of the design competition, all the submitted design schemes shall become property of the procuring entity.

D— Restricted Tendering

102. Restricted tendering

(1) An accounting officer of a procuring entity may use restricted tendering if any of the following conditions are satisfied—

- (a) competition for contract, because of the complex or specialised nature of the goods, works or services is restricted to prequalified tenderers resulting from the procedure under section 94;
- (b) the time and cost required to examine and evaluate a large number of tenders would be disproportionate to the value of the goods, works or services to be procured; or
- (c) if there is evidence to the effect that there are only a few known suppliers of the whole market of the goods, works or services;
- (d) an advertisement is placed, where applicable, on the procuring entity website regarding the intention to procure through limited tender.

(2) An accounting officer of a procuring entity may engage in procurement by means of restricted tendering in such manner as may be prescribed.

E — Direct Procurement

103. When direct procurement may be used

(1) A procuring entity may use direct procurement as allowed under sub-section (2) as long as the purpose is not to avoid competition.

(2) A procuring entity may use direct procurement if any of the following are satisfied—

- (a) the goods, works or services are available only from a particular supplier or contractor, or a particular supplier or contractor has exclusive rights in respect of the goods, works or services, and no reasonable alternative or substitute exists;
- (b) due to war, invasion, disorder, natural disaster or there is an urgent need for the goods, works or services, and engaging in tendering proceedings or any other method of procurement would therefore be impractical, provided that the circumstances giving rise to the urgency were neither foreseeable by the procuring entity nor the result of dilatory conduct on its part;
- (c) owing to a catastrophic event, there is an urgent need for the goods, works or services, making it impractical to use other methods of procurement because of the time involved in using those methods;
- (d) the procuring entity, having procured goods, equipment, technology or services from a supplier or contractor, determines that additional supplies shall be procured from that supplier or contractor for reasons of standardization or because of the need for compatibility with existing goods, equipment, technology or services, taking into account the effectiveness of the original procurement in meeting the needs of the procuring entity, the limited size of the proposed procurement in relation to the original procurement, the reasonableness of the price and the unsuitability of alternatives to the goods or services in question;
- (e) for the acquiring of goods, works or services provided by a public entity provided that the acquisition price is fair and reasonable and compares well with known prices of goods, works or services in the circumstances.

(3) A public officer who contravenes the provisions of subsection (2) commits an offence.

104. Procedure for direct procurement

An accounting officer of a procuring entity shall adhere to the following procedures with respect to direct procurement—

- (a) issue a tender document which shall be the basis of tender preparation by tenderer and subsequent negotiations.
- (b) appoint an ad hoc evaluation committee pursuant to section 46 to negotiate with a person for the supply of goods, works or non-consultancy services being provided;
- (c) ensure appropriate approvals under this Act have been granted;
- (d) ensure the resulting contract is in writing and signed by both parties.

F — Request for Quotations

105. When request for quotations may be used

A procuring entity may use a request for quotations from the register of suppliers for a procurement if—

- (a) the estimated value of the goods, works or non-consultancy services being procured is less than or equal to the prescribed maximum value for using requests for quotations as prescribed in Regulations;

- (b) the procurement is for goods, works or non-consultancy services that are readily available in the market; and
- (c) the procurement is for goods, works or services for which there is an established market.

106. Procedure for request for quotations

(1) A procuring entity shall prepare a request for quotations that sets out the following—

- (a) the name and address of the procuring entity;
- (b) the specific requirements prepared under section 67 relating to the goods, works or services being procured;
- (c) an explanation of where and when quotations shall be submitted; and
- (d) anything else required under this Act or the Regulations to be set out in the request for quotations.

(2) An accounting officer of a procuring entity shall deal with the request for quotations in accordance with the following—

- (a) the accounting officer of a procuring entity shall give the request to such persons as are registered by the procuring entity;
- (b) the request shall be given to as many persons as necessary to ensure effective competition and shall be given to at least three persons, unless that is not possible;
- (c) the accounting officer of a procuring entity shall give the request to each person early enough so that the person has adequate time to prepare a quotation;
- (d) at least three persons shall submit their quotations prior to evaluation.

(3) The successful quotation shall be the quotation with the lowest price that meets the requirements set out in the request for quotations.

(4) Where the lowest price is above the prevailing market rates, the request for quotations shall be cancelled or terminated in accordance with the cancellation and termination procedures set out in this Act.

(5) The following shall apply with respect to the contract resulting from a procurement by a request for quotations—

- (a) the procuring entity shall place a purchase order with the person submitting the successful quotation;
- (b) the person submitting the successful quotation shall confirm the purchase order in writing; and
- (c) an accounting officer shall consider recommendations for award arising from a contract under procurement by a request for quotations for approval or rejection.

*G — Low-Value Procurement107. When low-value procurement may be used

A procuring entity may use a low-value procurement procedure if—

- (a) the entity is procuring low value items which are not procured on a regular or frequent basis and are not covered in framework agreement;

- (b) the estimated value of the goods, works or non-consultancy services being procured are less than or equal to the maximum value per financial year for that low-value procurement procedure as may be prescribed.

108. Procedure for low-value procurement

The procedure and conditions for the use of low-value procurement method by different classes of public entities or different classes of goods, works or services being procured shall be as prescribed in the regulations.

H — Force Account

109. Force Account

(1) A procuring entity may use force account by making recourse to the state or public officers and using public assets, equipment and labour.

(2) A procuring entity may use force account by making recourse to the state or public officers and using public assets, equipment and labour which are competitive and where—

- (a) quantities of work involved are small and scattered or in remote locations for which qualified construction firms are unlikely to tender at reasonable price and the quantities of works cannot be defined in advance;
- (b) unforeseen and urgent work is required to be carried out without disrupting on-going operations;
- (c) the procuring entity is to complete works delayed by the contractor after the written warnings did not yield any tangible results.

(3) This method shall only be applied—

- (a) with the prior approval of the accounting officer;
- (b) within the limit prescribed in Regulations;
- (c) where the total cost of procuring the goods, works and non-consultancy services are, at most, set at the prevailing market rate.

(4) The procedure to use force account shall be as prescribed in the Regulations.

I — Electronic Reverse Auction

110. Reverse Auction

The Authority may in exceptional circumstances approve a system of electronic reverse auction method of procurement for goods, works or non-consultancy services by a procuring entity.

111. Conditions for use of Reverse Auctions

For an accounting officer of a procuring entity to be qualified to use the reverse auction method it shall possess—

- (a) a procurement portal;
- (b) an appropriate secure software with electronic procurement capabilities and functionalities approved by the Authority.

112. Procedure for Reverse Auction

In the reverse auction method of procurement—

- (a) a procuring entity shall—
 - (i) invite all registered suppliers in the specific category to compete;
 - (ii) advertise its requirements on its website including the period of time and goods specifications;
- (b) the prices of bidders within the prescribed time shall be visible to other bidders without revealing the bidder's identity; and
- (c) pre-qualified supplier shall not revise its bid upwards within the prescribed time.

113. Successful reverse auctioneering bid

Subject to the reserve price set by the procuring entity, the successful bid shall be the bid with lowest price at the bid submission deadline.

*J — Framework Agreement114. Framework agreement

- (1) A procuring entity may enter into a framework agreement open tender if—
 - (a) the procurement value is within the thresholds prescribed under Regulations to this Act;
 - (b) the required quantity of goods, works or non-consultancy services cannot be determined at the time of entering into the agreement; and
 - (c) a minimum of seven alternative vendors are included for each category.
- (2) The maximum term for the framework agreement shall be three years and, for agreements exceeding one year, a value for money assessment undertaken annually to determine whether the terms designated in the framework agreement remain competitive.
- (3) When implementing a framework agreement, a procuring entity may—
 - (a) procure through call-offs order when necessary; or
 - (b) invite mini-competition among persons that have entered into the framework agreement in the respective category.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(a), "call-offs order" means an order made using a framework agreement with one or more contractors, suppliers or consultants for a defined quantity of works, goods, consultancy covering terms and conditions including price that users require to meet the immediate requirements.
- (5) Evaluation of bids under category specified by subsection (3)(b) shall be undertaken by an evaluation committee as provided for under this Act.
- (6) A procurement management unit shall prepare and submit to the accounting officer with a copy to the internal auditor quarterly reports detailing an analysis of items procured through framework agreements and these reports shall include, an analysis of pattern of usage, procurement costs in relation to the prevailing market rates and any recommendations.
- (7) For greater certainty procurements undertaken through framework agreements may be subject to preferences and reservations as provided for in this Act.

*K — Specially Permitted Procurement114A. Specially permitted procurement procedure

(1) A procuring entity may use a procurement procedure specially permitted by the National Treasury.

(2) The National Treasury may allow the use of specially permitted procedure—

- (a) where exceptional requirements make it impossible, impracticable or uneconomical to comply with the Act and the Regulations;
- (b) where the market conditions or behaviour do not allow the effective application of the Act and Regulations made under the Act;
- (c) for specialized or particular requirements which are regulated or governed by harmonized international standards or practices;
- (d) where strategic partnership sourcing is applied;
- (e) where credit financing procurement is applied; or
- (f) in such other circumstances as may be prescribed.

(3) The Cabinet Secretary may prescribe the procedure for carrying out specially permitted procurements under this section.

[Act No. 15 of 2017, s. 57.]

PART X— PROCUREMENT OF CONSULTANCY SERVICES115. Application of this Part

This Part applies to procurement of professional services which are predominately intellectual or advisory in nature.

116. When request for proposals may be used

(1) An accounting officer of a procuring entity may use a request for proposals for a procurement if—

- (a) the procurement is of services or a combination of goods and services; and
- (b) the services to be procured are advisory or otherwise of a predominately intellectual nature.

(2) Subject to any prescribed restrictions, a procuring entity may use a request for proposals in combination with other methods of procurement under this Act.

117. Terms of reference and invitation of tenders from shortlisted firms

Initiation of the procurement shall—

- (a) be subject to section 74 of the Act.
- (b) include in the terms of reference the expected milestones or performance benchmarks to be realized throughout the consultancy period and the related timelines.

118. Request for proposal inviting expression of interest

(1) The accounting officer of a procuring entity may—

- (a) request for proposal through advertisement;
- (b) invite expression of interests or utilize the register provided for under section 57 of this Act.

(2) The accounting officer of a procuring entity shall invite proposals from only the persons who have been shortlisted as qualified to submit their tenders within a period as prescribed.

119. Notice inviting expressions of interest

(1) An accounting officer of a procuring entity may prepare a notice inviting interested persons to submit expressions of interest as prescribed.

(2) The notice inviting expressions of interest shall set out the following—

- (a) the name and address of the procuring entity;
- (b) a brief description of the consultancy services being procured and, if applicable, the goods being procured;
- (c) eligibility and the qualifications necessary to be invited to submit a proposal; and
- (d) an explanation of where and when expressions of interest shall be submitted.

(3) An accounting officer of a procuring entity shall advertise the notice inviting expressions of interest in the dedicated government's advertising tenders' portal and in its own website, or in at least one daily newspaper of nation-wide circulation.

(4) In regard to county-specific procurements pursuant to section 33 of this Act, an accounting officer of a procuring entity shall advertise the notice inviting expressions of interest in the dedicated government's advertising tenders portal, its own website, or in at least one daily newspaper of county-wide circulation as prescribed.

120. Opening of proposals

The provisions of section 78 of this Act with respect to the opening of proposals shall apply with modifications.

121. Evaluation and shortlisting

(1) The accounting officer of a procuring entity shall, in writing, record the results of its evaluation of applications for expression of interest using the evaluation criteria in the expression of interest notice and documents and shall state which candidates were found to be qualified and the reasons why any candidates were not qualified.

(2) The evaluation and comparison shall be done using the procedures and criteria set out in the expression of interest documents and shall, in the case of expression of interest for professional services, have regard to the provisions of this Act and statutory instruments issued by the relevant professional associations regarding regulation of fees chargeable for services rendered.

(3) Subject to total proposals received, a minimum of six proposals shall be shortlisted, but where less than six proposals have been received, a minimum of three proposals shall be shortlisted.

(4) The record of results prepared under subsection (1) shall be submitted to the accounting officer for review and approval.

122. Determination of qualified persons

(1) After the deadline for submitting expressions of interest the accounting officer of a procuring entity shall examine each expression of interest to determine if the person submitting it is qualified to be invited to submit a proposal in accordance with the notice inviting expressions of interest.

(2) The accounting officer of a procuring entity shall simultaneously notify in writing each of the tenderers of the results of the expression of interest.

123. Request for proposals to qualified persons

(1) The accounting officers of a procuring entity shall issue every person short-listed who is qualified to be invited to submit a request for proposals and a copy of the terms of reference.

(2) The request for proposals shall set out the following—

- (a) the name and address of the accounting officer of the procuring entity;
- (b) the general and specific conditions to which the contract will be subject;
- (c) instructions for the preparation and submission of proposals which may require that a proposal include a technical proposal and a financial proposal as prescribed;
- (d) an explanation of where and when proposals shall be submitted;
- (e) the procedures and criteria to be used to evaluate and compare the proposals including—
 - (i) the procedures and criteria for evaluating the technical proposals which shall include a determination of whether the proposal is responsive;
 - (ii) the procedures and criteria for evaluating the financial proposals; and
 - (iii) any other additional method of evaluation, which may include interviews or presentations, and the procedures and criteria for that additional method;
- (f) a statement giving notice of the restriction, in section 130, on entering into other contracts; and
- (g) anything else required, under this Act or the Regulations to be set out in the request for proposals.

124. Selection methods for requests for proposals

(1) The Procuring Entity shall select Quality and Cost Based Selection (QCBS) method as the preferred method to be used to evaluate proposals and shall state the selection procedure in the Request for Proposals.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), "Quality and Cost Based Selection" method is a method that uses a competitive process that takes into account the quality of the proposal and the cost of the services in the selection of the successful firm.

(3) The request for proposal shall request submission of both technical and financial proposals at the same time, but in separate envelopes.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, in the evaluation of tenders by public entities, the criteria for assessing the technical and financial capability of the tenderers shall be as may be prescribed by the accounting officer in the tender documents.

(5) The request for proposal under subsection (3) shall provide either the estimated budget or the estimated time of key experts, specifying that this information is given as an indication only and that consultants shall be free to propose their own estimates.

(6) Subject to prescribed restrictions, a procuring entity may use any of the following alternatives in the selection methods to evaluate proposals and shall state the selection method in the Request for Proposals—

- (a) Quality Based Selection (QBS), which focuses on quality and selects the highest quality proposal;
- (b) Least Cost Selection (LCS), which selects the lowest priced proposal, which meets the entity's technical requirements;
- (c) Consultants Qualifications Selection (CQS);
- (d) Individual Consultants Selection (ICS);
- (e) Fixed Budget Selection; or
- (f) Single Source Selection

(7) Quality Based Selection method shall be appropriate for—

- (a) complex or highly specialized assignments for which it is difficult to define precise terms of reference and the required input from the consultants;
- (b) assignments that have a high downstream impact and in which the objective is to have the best experts;
- (c) assignments that can be carried out in substantially different ways;
- (d) assignments and professional services which are regulated by Acts of Parliament which stipulate fees and charges applicable for such assignments.

(8) Least-Cost Selection method under subsection (6)(b) shall be generally appropriate for selecting consultants for assignments of a standard or routine nature where well-established practices and standards exist.

(9) Fixed Budget Selection as a request form for proposal under subsection (6) (e) shall indicate the available budget and request the consultants to provide their best technical and financial proposals in separate envelopes, within the budget.

(10) Fixed budget selection method is appropriate only when the assignment is simple and can be precisely defined and when the budget is fixed.

(11) Proposals under Fixed Budget selection method that exceed the indicated budget shall be rejected and the consultant who has submitted the highest ranked technical proposal among the rest shall be selected and invited to negotiate a contract.

(12) Single Source Selection may be appropriate in the following cases, and only if it presents a clear advantage over competition—

- (a) where it can be evidenced that goods, works or services are available only from a particular supplier, or a particular supplier has exclusive rights in respect of the consultancy services, and no reasonable alternative or substitute exists; or
- (b) for tasks that represent a natural continuation of previous work carried out by the firm;
- (c) in exceptional cases, such as, but not limited to, in response to natural disasters and for a declared national emergency situations.

(13) The accounting officer shall issue a written justification for single-source selection in the context of the overall interests of the procuring entity.

(14) Single Source Selection shall require a placement of advertisement of the intention to single source and invite anyone who wishes to bid and in the event that there is a response to the advert then all interested suppliers shall be invited to submit proposals.

(15) Where alternative methods are selected a report shall be prepared and submitted to the Authority for approval.

125. Time for preparing proposals

(2) A request for review shall be accompanied by such refundable deposit as may be prescribed in the regulations, and such deposit shall not be less than ten per cent of the cost of the contract.

(3) A request for review shall be heard and determined in an open forum unless the matter at hand is likely to compromise national security or the review procedure.

(4) The following matters shall not be subject to the review of procurement proceedings under subsection (1)—

- (a) the choice of a procurement method;
- (b) a termination of a procurement or asset disposal proceedings in accordance with section 62 of this Act; and
- (c) where a contract is signed in accordance with section 135 of this Act.

168. Notification of review and suspension of proceedings

Upon receiving a request for a review under section 167, the Secretary to the Review Board shall notify the accounting officer of a procuring entity of the pending review from the Review Board and the suspension of the procurement proceedings in such manner as may be prescribed.

169. Rejection of requests by Review Board Secretariat

The Review Board Secretariat shall reject a request for a review where no appeal fees were paid within the prescribed time.

170. Parties to review

The parties to a review shall be—

- (a) the person who requested the review;
- (b) the accounting officer of a procuring entity;
- (c) the tenderer notified as successful by the procuring entity; and
- (d) such other persons as the Review Board may determine.

171. Completion of review

(1) The Review Board shall complete its review within twenty one days after receiving the request for the review.

(2) In no case shall any appeal under this Act stay or delay the procurement process beyond the time stipulated in this Act or the Regulations made thereunder.

172. Dismissal of frivolous appeals

Review Board may dismiss with costs a request if it is of the opinion that the request is frivolous or vexatious or was made solely for the purpose of delaying the procurement proceedings or performance of a contract and the applicant shall forfeit the deposit paid.

173. Powers of Review Board

Upon completing a review, the Review Board may do any one or more of the following—

- (a) annul anything the accounting officer of a procuring entity has done in the procurement proceedings, including annulling the procurement or disposal proceedings in their entirety;
- (b) give directions to the accounting officer of a procuring entity with respect to anything to be done or redone in the procurement or disposal proceedings;
- (c) substitute the decision of the Review Board for any decision of the accounting officer of a procuring entity in the procurement or disposal proceedings;
- (d) order the payment of costs as between parties to the review in accordance with the scale as prescribed; and
- (e) order termination of the procurement process and commencement of a new procurement process.

174. Right to review is additional right

The right to request a review under this Part is in addition to any other legal remedy a person may have.

175. Right to judicial review to procurement

(1) A person aggrieved by a decision made by the Review Board may seek judicial review by the High Court within fourteen days from the date of the Review Board's decision, failure to which the decision of the Review Board shall be final and binding to both parties.

(2) The application for a judicial review shall be accepted only after the aggrieved party pays a percentage of the contract value as security fee as shall be prescribed in Regulations.

(3) The High Court shall determine the judicial review application within forty-five days after such application.

(4) A person aggrieved by the decision of the High Court may appeal to the Court of Appeal within seven days of such decision and the Court of Appeal shall make a decision within forty-five days which decision shall be final.

(5) If either the High Court or the Court of Appeal fails to make a decision within the prescribed timeline under subsection (3) or (4), the decision of the Review Board shall be final and binding to all parties.

(6) A party to the review which disobeys the decision of the Review Board or the High Court or the Court of Appeal shall be in breach of this Act and any action by such party contrary to the decision of the Review Board or the High Court or the Court of Appeal shall be null and void.

(7) Where a decision of the Review Board has been quashed, the High Court shall not impose costs on either party.
